Best Game In Town

Andy McKinnon

I've never been a religious man
Going to heaven wasn't part of the plan
As far as clean living never been a big fan

All the horrible things they said about Hell
Made me kind of wonder what they're trying to sell
All the talk of damnation had a fishy smell
So I thought I'd find out for myself once and for all
Instead of climbing the ladder see how far I could fall

So I asked a bunch of people how to get to hell
But they thought I must be crazy and refused to tell
Till I met some strange agents said they'd treat me well

They took me to a valley with a deep dark hole
Said the center of the earth was the ultimate goal
That's where I'd find the Devil who would tend my soul

So we rigged the pit and made our way down below
With every drop I felt my excitement grow

Take me down to heaven beneath the ground
A place where clean living simply can't be found
It's so much fun getting dirty and such
But beauty abounding so please don't touch
Call me a sinner, but it's the best game in town

Take me down to heaven beneath the ground
Where the Devil is God with a headlamp on his crown
All the saints flying so high thru the sky
They better turn around and I'll tell you why
If you want to get to Heaven, you gotta go down (2x)
